Alcock (John Rutherford, 1809–1897). Yeddo from the Avenue at Tozengee, 24 March 1861, watercolour and pencil on thick paper, titled and dated in the lower margin, 173 x 244 mm, contained in an album of 76 watercolours & drawings, 16 coloured or tinted lithographs and 126 wood engravings of Japan, all c. 1859–63, neatly pasted onto 116 numbered leaves, with neat captions, calligraphic title, preface and index by H. G. Lowder, (Hankow, China, 4 March 1924), Lowder's library ticket 'no. 568' tipped in, early 20th-century leather, gilt-titled spine, rubbed, some edge and corner wear, 4to (26 x 22 cm)

The album was assembled by Hugh Gordon Lowder, while Commissioner Chinese Maritime Customs at Hankow. Lowder explains in the introductory note that the album chiefly comprises sketches 'illustrating the dress, manners, customs, and country of the people at that period', with sketches chiefly drawn by John Rutherford Alcock, S[amuel] J[ohn] Gower [1825-1892], C[harles] Wirgman [1832-1891], 'and various Native Artists'. The majority were published as lithographs and wood engravings in Alcock's 2-volume memoir The Capital of the Tycoon (1863). Lowder's index cross-references all the published watercolours and prints with the published book, the watercolour above appearing in volume 1, p. 104.

Provenance: John Rutherford Alcock (1809–1897), first British diplomatic representative to live in Japan. Alcock married Lucy Lowder, née Windsor (1813–1899) in 1862. Lucy's first marriage was to Rev. John Lowder (1811–1849), British Consular Chaplain, Shanghai; thence by direct family descent through the Lowder family's male line.

ESTC T71967; Howes J127; Sabin 36287.

The very rare first edition of this foundational work in pirate mythology which was influential in shaping popular conceptions of pirates. It introduced now-familiar tropes of wooden legs, eye patches, burying treasure, and the Jolly Roger pirate flag, which all make their first appearance here. It sold so well that a second edition appeared the same year and by 1726 an enlarged fourth edition was published. The name of the author may well be a pseudonym and was previously attributed to Daniel Defoe.

Biographies of some of the most famous pirates, including Blackbeard, Calico Jack, and Bartholomew Roberts, are featured, as well as those of two female pirates, Anne Bonny and Mary Read. The three plates depict Blackbeard, Ann Bonny & Mary Read, and Captain Bartholomew Read with two ships, the Royal Fortune and Ranger.

'This rare work embodies many items relating to the colonial history of British America, nowhere else extant, as the Adventures of Blackbeard, and his Capture by Lieut. Maynard in the James River...' (Sabin).

Lot 14

14 Ordonez de Cevallos (Pedro). Viage del Mundo, 1st edition, Madrid: Luis Sanchez, 1614, woodcut coat-of-arms on title, full-page woodcut portrait of the author, final text leaf in old manuscript facsimile, armorial bookplate of Antonio Canovas del Castillo to front pastedown, early neat ink notation to verso of front free endpaper, a little spotted with a few leaves with small light damp-stains (mostly confined to last few leaves), early 19th-century half calf gilt, a little rubbed and marked, a little wear to fore-edge of upper cover, small 4to

Provenance: Antonio Canovas del Castillo (1828-1897), Spanish Prime Minister (his sale, Sotheby Parke Bernet, 20 November 1975, lot 277).

Palau 03651; Sabin 57524, "Rare"; Streit 1:345.

An exceedingly rare copy of Cevallos' account of his circumnavigation, the first to commence in the Americas. He travelled extensively in South America, before journeying to the Far East, including visits to the Philippines, China (including Macao) and Japan. It also serves as one of the earliest accounts of Bermuda prior to it being settled by the Somers Island Company in 1612.

Apart from this copy, we can trace only one appearance at auction since 1948 (Christie's, 19 May 2000, lacking four leaves including portrait). A second edition was published in 1691, and extracts of this work were reprinted by De Bry, Purchas and Barlaeus.

(1) £1,000 - £1,500

15 Snelgrave (William). A New Account of some Parts of Guinea, and the Slave-Trade. Containing I. The History of the Late Conquest of the Kingdom of Whidaw by the King of Dahomè ... II. The manner how the Negroes become Slaves ... III. A Relation of the Author's being taken by Pirates, 1st edition, London: James, John, and Paul Knapton, 1734, engraved folding map frontispiece, (light damp stains along top edge), occasional light soiling to upper margins of text leaves, contemporary ink ownership inscription of C. Gibson to title, contemporary sprinkled calf gilt, joints cracked but holding, front endpaper detached, a little loss to spine ends and spine label deficient, 8vo

Provenance: Francis Ferrand Foljambe (1750-1814), English politician, with his indistinct crest at foot of spine.

ESTC T136167; Goldsmiths' 7204; Kress 4197; Sabin 85380.

Snelgrave was an active slave trader from 1704 to 1734. His book is 'apologetic of the slave trade and heavy with tales of Africans' sacrificing humans, selling their children into slavery, and engaging in cannibalism. But, more importantly, it chronicles rebelliousness aboard slave ships and the Dahomean destruction and desolation of Ouidah, an outlet for 20,000 slaves a year' (Parent, Foul Means: The Formation of a Slave Society in Virginia, 1660-1740, p. 222).

68 Boucher (Lucien, 1889-1971). Air France, Double-Hemisphere Celestial Map, printed by Perceval, Paris: circa 1950, colour lithographic map of the heavens and the zodiacal constellations, printed in gold, turquoise and blue, wind heads in each corner, small globe to lower centre showing Air France routes around the world and in the upper cusp is a circular image of a hippocampus set within a compass rose, large margins, 620 x 965 mm, laid on later linen

The celestial companion piece to Boucher's 1950 double-hemisphere terrestrial map. These large-scale posters proved very popular and were issued in several editions throughout the early 1950s. This example is referenced as "10 - 1950."

Louis Boucher designed and produced posters for Air France for nearly thirty years and this clever design manages to give the suggestion of a blend of fantasy and reality, and at the same time provides the viewer with a suggestion of the experience they will have if they choose to fly with Air France. It is designed to capture the imagination and at the same time provides a strong brand message. In an almost surrealistic manner, Boucher has managed to illustrate the constellations as obtainable and encourages us to see the aeroplane as not just the master of the sky, but of the whole universe, connecting the passenger not merely to earthly destinations, but to the stars themselves.

The third map by Pierre Lapie, who was Geographer to the King before the French Revolution but managed to avoid the purge of royalists and emerged as Capitaine de 1ere classes au Corps des Ingénieurs Géographes during the Empire (1804 - 14). The map is dedicated to Louis-Alexandre Berthier, Napoleon's Chief of Staff from 1796 - 1814. Berthier's strength was his logistical and organizational ability and he would have needed the most accurate maps with the best possible information for Napoleon's planned invasion of the British Isles. The map was probably prepared under his direction for just this purpose.

(5) Schøyen Collection, MS 5616.

An attractive example of the work of the 15th century Lombard illuminator Venturino Mercati (or Venturino da Milano) documented as being active in Siena, where he worked for the Opera del Duomo from 1473 to 1476, collaborating with Francesco de Giorgio di Martino, Girolamo da Cremona and Liberale di Jacopo da Verona on a number of illuminated manuscripts. He also worked in Monteoliveto, where he illuminated an antiphonary for the ospedale of Santa Maria della Scala in 1476, left unfinished by Maestro Agnolo (Siena, Museo del Opera del Duomo, Mss., 92.N). In December 1477 he is recorded as being paid by the monastery of Monteoliveto for having illuminated a manual, and in 1479 the Olivetans paid him twenty gold pieces for the altarpiece of the father abbot (probably lost). One of the last representatives of the Flemish-Burgundian gothic tradition of illumination, Venturino is known for his two-dimensional rendering of drapery, and high colour, which he inherited from the Master of the Vitae Imperatorum, Belbello da Pavia, Jacopo da Balsemo, and the Master of Ippolita Sforza.

264 Bible [English]. The Byble in Englyshe, that is to saye the conte[n]t of al the holy scripture, both of ye olde, and newe testame[n]t, with a prologe therinto, made by the reverende father in God, Thomas archbysshop of Cantorbury. This is the Byble apoynted to the use of the churches, [London]: Prynted by Rychard Grafton, 1540, *general title and New Testament titles both present, printed in red and black within woodcut borders (shaved at head to both titles, lower outer corner of general title torn with loss and repaired, New Testament title with few repairs to lower blank margin), titles to parts 2 and 3 with borders comprised of woodcut illustrations representing incidents in the Bible, woodcut border to Apocrypha, several woodcut illustrations and criblé initials, black letter text, lacking leaf 2 (1st leaf of Kalendar January-July) and lacking final leaf 2N8 at rear of volume (table/colophon), early marginalia and underscoring to several leaves in prologue, verso of list of books in the Bible with early ownership inscription 'John Trott his buke the 7th of October 1629', few minor wormholes mostly to initial leaves, occasional close trimming to running titles at head, some damp-staining and mottling throughout becoming heavier in middle and towards end with resultant tears, fraying and defects to many lower margins (many leaves repaired), recent endpapers, 17th-century calf, upper board with few marks, spine with modern maroon morocco title label, repaired at foot of spine and few discreet repairs to lower edge of upper board, lacking clasps, folio (37.4 x 26 cm)

Darlow and Moule 31; Herbert 54; STC 2071.

The third Great Bible (July 1540); and the second with Cranmer's Prologue. The text mainly follows that of the second edition, though it contains a number of minute variations. The large border to the general title [and New Testament title] is the well-known woodcut, formerly but inaccurately ascribed to Holbein (see J. F. Mozley, op. cit. p. 254), which represents Henry VIII, Cranmer and Cromwell distributing Bibles, and the people shouting 'Vivat Rex' and 'God save the King.' (Herbert, Darlow and Moule).

This volume contains 3 preliminaries that are not in the British Library 3rd edition copy but are shown with a question mark by Herbert and were present in the second edition. The final preliminary leaf 'A description of success' is misbound after the Prologue.

Herbert 72; STC 2854/2854.2 (matching listed catchwords with this copy).

Provenance:

Volume 1: (Inscription) Edward Stillingfleet, possibly 1) ordained deacon and priest 1724; chaplain to bishop of Exeter 1760; vicar Wolverley 1761; vicar Lindridge 1766-1777; rector Hartlebury and canon of Worcester 1777; died 21 Mar 1777; will (mentioning unspecified books), proved 7 May 1777: PROB 11/1031/77; or 2) ordained deacon 14 Mar 1756; perpetual curate West Bromwich 1757-1782; lecturer West Bromwich 1758-1782; rector How Caple and Sollershope Herefordshire 1795; died 1795; will (of Kelfield in Yorkshire) proved 27 Jun 1795: PROB 11/1262/308.

(Bookplate) [Caleb] Robjohns (c.1857-1929), donor of over 5,000 books to the University College Leicester library.

Volume 2: (Inscriptions) Thomas Kinge, Thomas Helme & Elizabeth Roseley (1571), later inscriptions of John Cowel and John Ward; George Kadwell (bought from) Andrew Kembe, bookseller in London, (1) By St. Margaret's Hill in long Southwarke, 1636; (2) St. Margaret's Hill in Southwark, 1642; (3) St. Margarets Hill, near the Talbot in Southwark. 1635-64. [Arber, iii. 686].

Collation:

Volume 1: 661 leaves. [19], cxxi [i.e. cx], [8], xciii, [14], cx[c]vii, [8], cxxi, [2], lxxxviii leaves. Lacks title (dated 1548 but actually 1549) and two blanks at end of Luke (kk6) and John (U8). The final leaf (lxxxviii, [O8]) appears correct, with no blanks required following this.

Volume 2: 353 leaves. [12], xliiii, lxiv, xxi, [5], xv, x, x, [xii], xxxiv, [xviii], [2], liv, [2], xl leaves. Lacks title, C1-4 (Argument Romans), folio xxxix (Revelation of St John), and three blanks (dd4 at end of St Paul to the Galathians), 6 & CC4 (St Paul to the Ephesians).

A married set, but a surprisingly rare and largely complete first edition of the English printing of Erasmus's paraphrases to the New Testament.

In addition to his famous edition of the Greek New Testament, published with a Latin translation in 1516, Erasmus also produced a paraphrase of the whole New Testament (with the exception of the Apocalypse) between 1517 and 1524. Written in his spontaneous and natural Latin style, the work was received with great acclaim. An English translation of them was ordered during the reign of Edward VI, with funds supplied by Catherine Parr, the sixth, and surviving wife of Henry VIII. Among the translators were Miles Coverdale, Leonard Coxe, Thomas Key, John Olde, Nicholas Udall, and the young Princess Mary (later to be queen), who translated most of the paraphrase on the Gospel of John.

A copy of this work was ordered by royal injunction to be 'set up in some convenient place' in churches across the country in order that all clergymen and their parishioners could read it, thus putting it on a par with the Great Bible. 'It was instrumental in making the New Testament in English available and known to clergy and people' and was 'the chief means by which Erasmus was claimed for the English reformed church' (Craig, Forming a Protestant Consciousness, p. 335).

'W. Aldis Wright has distinguished no less than six varieties of Vol. 1. No doubt, owing to the demand for copies at an early date, several presses were employed at the same time, and the work of printing was pushed on as rapidly as possible. Some copies are mixed. There appear to be no such varieties of Vol. 2' (Herbert 72).

Sold with all faults, not subject to return.

302* Chaucer (Geoffrey, c. 1343-1400). An early manuscript copy of extracts from a John Stow edition of the Works of Chaucer, [1561 or later], early 17th century, 20 leaves, written in double columns to rectos and versos in a neat but small hand on laid paper, comprising 'Table of the Tales Contained in this worke called The Canterbury Tales' and 'Eight goodly questions' & Prologue dedication, [2 pp.]; 'A kind of Prophessie of Sir Geoffrey Chaucers that is fulfilled almost in every Age', title cartouche showing "1471" edition, 'The Prolgoues of the Tales wherin the Speakers are Described', (pp. 1-8); 'The Knights Tale', (incomplete, ends 'And thus with good hope, and heart blithe'), pp. 1-8; 'The Complaint of Venus', 'The Letter of Cupid', 'A Ballad to Kinge Henry IV', and several other short works on 'Good Conseile', 'Of the Praise of Women', 'The Ten Commandements of Love', and 'The Court of Love', pp. 344-358, 358-366, minor marks and light marginal damp stains, facsimile of the manuscript '1471' Works edition inserted at front, modern cloth, slim folio (29.5 x 18.5 cm)

An interesting Chaucer manuscript curio. Though evidently using a printed or manuscript copy of Chaucer's Works it is not clear that the layout, wording or spellings match up with any specific printed edition. John Stow's name appears more than once in the text, indicating that the text followed does not predate his known involvement. The first Stow edition of the Chaucer's Works appeared in 1561, but without mention of his name. However, the text of this manuscript follows this edition much more closely than the first Thomas Speight edition of 1598, with which Stow was also closely involved.

From her old friend, John Ruskin, 6th July 1885'

Provenance: Collection of Iolo Aneurin Williams (1890–1962), collector and author of Early English Watercolours and Some Cognate Drawings by Artists born not later than 1785 (1952).

Accompanied by a handwritten letter on headed paper Woodend, Windermere, Westmorland, dated 22nd September 1936, gifting this copy of Fors Clavigera to Edward from Dolly: 'Dear Edward, Here is your birthday present. A 1st edition volume of one of Ruskin's writings with an inscription written by him when he gave it to an old woman whom I used to know here – she has only just died. He calls one of the chapters 'Agnes's Book' as you see & she was the Agnes who inspired it at 6 years old. When she saw him again twelve years or so later he asked her if she had ever read the book he wrote about her, & when she said No, he said 'then I will give you a copy' & gave this book to her (loosely inserted at front of volume).

Agnes Stalker was the daughter of Mr Stalker, a shepherd on the moorlands above Brantwood. Agnes is referred to in Ruskin's letters in February and March of 1875, where over the course of several visits, he became good friends with both Mrs Stalker and the nine-year-old daughter. 348 Robert Browning Settlement. Bound volume containing 49 pamphlets and tracts relating to the first 8 years of the Robert Browning Settlement, in Walworth, London, 1895-1902, some with monochrome illustrations and retaining original printed wrappers, typed title and index of pamphlets within volume, front flyleaf inscribed by Francis Herbert Stead (1857-1928) 'To my dear friend and comrade Frederick Rogers, May 25, 1903, F. H. S.', top edge gilt, remainder untrimmed, early 20th-century red half morocco, extremities rubbed, 8vo

Francis Herbert Stead (1857-1928), was a congregationalist minister who served at the York Street Chapel in Walworth. He was a British social reformer notable for the establishment of the Robert Browning Settlement (also called Browning Hall), a social settlement established in Walworth, London, in 1895, which provided social services to the poor as well as accommodation. In 1890 the chapel was renamed "Browning Hall", honouring Robert Browning, who had been baptised there in 1812. Francis Stead is also remembered for his work on the National Committee of Organised Labour which waged a decade-long campaign for the introduction of a general tax-funded system of old-age pensions from 1899.

Frederick Rogers (1846-1915) was a trades unionist, writer, journalist and bookbinder. He was the first chairman of the Labour Representation Committee, the political pressure group from which the origins of the Labour Party can be traced. He is also remembered for his dedicated work to improve education for the working class and the introduction of a general tax-funded system of old-age pensions.

1. The uncorrected version of Keynes's essay regarding his theory of wartime economy. A corrected version, issued in orange printed boards, was published a few months later. "Apart from suggesting ways of adding greatly to the financial resources of the government, this inaugurated the idea of an iron ration at low, fixed prices of a list of necessities in lower-income budgets, with government subsidies if required. He proposed also to assist families with low incomes by introducing family allowances payable directly to the mother. The net effect of these concessions would have been to effect an actual improvement in the condition of the worst-off compared with pre-war years" (ODNB).

INFORMATION FOR BUYERS

AFTER THE AUCTION

Online Results: If you weren't present or able to follow the auction live, you can find results for the sale on our website shortly after the sale has ended.

Payment: The price you pay is the amount at which the auctioneer's hammer falls (the hammer price), plus a buyer's premium (a percentage of the final hammer price) and vat where applicable. You will be issued with an invoice made out to the name and address provided on your registration form.

Please note successful bids made via live bidding cannot be invoiced or paid for until the day after an auction. A live bidding fee of 3% + VAT (Dominic Winter / Invaluable) or 4.95% + VAT (the-saleroom) will be added to your invoice. Please note that as from January 2025 all successful Invaluable bids are now subject to a minimum charge of the UK equivalent of $10 per lot.

METHODS OF PAYMENT

Cheque: Cheques will only be accepted on the day of the sale by prior arrangement (please contact our office for further information). Cheques by post will be accepted but a period of 5 working days will be required for the cheque to clear before purchases can be collected or posted.

Cash: Payments can be made at the Cashier's Office, either during or after the sale.

Debit Card: There is no additional charge for purchases made with debit cards in the UK.

Credit Cards: We accept Visa and Mastercard. It is advisable to let your card provider know in advance if you are intending to purchase. This reduces the time needed to obtain authorisation when the payment is made.

Bank Transfer: All transfers must state the relevant invoice number. If transferring from a foreign currency, the amount we receive must be the total due after the currency conversion and the deduction of any bank charges.

Note to Overseas Clients: All payments must be made by bank transfer only. No card payments will be accepted unless by special prior arrangements with the auctioneers.

Collection/Postage/Delivery: If you attend the auction in person and are successful in your bid, you are free to collect your item once payment has been made.

Shipping: Successful commission or live bids will be invoiced to you the day after the sale. When it is possible for our in-house packing department to send your purchase(s), a charge for postage/packing/insurance will be included in your invoice. Where it is not possible for our in-house packing department to send we will recommend other shipping specialists.

London Deliveries: We provide a monthly delivery service to Central London only, usually on Wednesday of the week following an auction. Payment must be received before this option can be requested. A charge will be added to your invoice for this service.

ARTIST'S RESALE RIGHT LAW ("DROIT DE SUITE")

Lots marked with AR next to the lot number may be subject to Droit de Suite.

Droit de Suite is payable on the hammer price of any artwork sold in the lifetime of the artist, or within 70 years of the artist's death. The buyer agrees to pay Dominic Winter Auctioneers Ltd an amount equal to the resale royalty and we will pay such amount to the artist's collecting agent. Resale royalty applies where the Hammer price is £1,000 or more.

The amount is calculated as follows:

Royalty	For the Portion of the Hammer Price
4.00%	up to £50,000
3.00%	between £50,000.01 and £200,000
1.00%	between £200,000.01 and £350,000
0.50%	between £350,000.01 and £500,000

Please refer to the DACS website www.dacs.org.uk and the Artists' Collecting Society website www.artistscollectingsociety.org for further details.

CONDITIONS OF SALE AND BUSINESS

1. The Seller warrants to the Auctioneer and the buyer that he is the true owner or is properly authorised to sell the property by the true owner and is able to transfer good and marketable title to the property free from any third party claims.
2. (a) The highest bidder to be the buyer. If during the auction the Auctioneer considers that a dispute has arisen he has absolute authority to settle it or re-offer the lot. The Auctioneer may at his sole discretion determine the advance of bidding or refuse a bid, divide any lot, combine any two or more lots or withdraw any lot without prior notice.
(b) Where goods are bought at auction by a buyer who has entered into an agreement with another or others that the other or others (or some of them) shall abstain from bidding for the goods and the buyer or other party or one of the other parties is a dealer (as defined in the Auction Biddings Agreement Act 1927) the buyer warrants that the goods are bought bona fide on joint account.
3. The buyer shall pay the price at which a lot is knocked down by the Auctioneer to the buyer ("the hammer price") together with a premium of 22% of the hammer price. Where the lot is marked by an asterisk the premium will be subject to VAT at 20% which under the Auctioneer's Margin Scheme will form part of the buyer's premium on our invoice and will not be separately identified (the premium added to the hammer price will hereafter collectively be referred to as "the total sum due"). By making any bid the buyer acknowledges that his attention has been drawn to the fact that on the sale of any lot the Auctioneer will receive from the seller commission at its usual rates in addition to the said premium of 22% and assents to the Auctioneer receiving the said commission.
4. (a) The buyer shall forthwith upon the purchase give in his name and permanent address and pay to the Auctioneer immediately after the conclusion of the auction the total sum due.
(b) The buyer may be required to pay down during the course of the sale the whole or any part of the total sum due, and if he fails to do so after such request the lot or lots may at the Auctioneer's absolute discretion be put up again and resold immediately.
(c) The buyer shall at his own expense take away any lot or lots purchased no later than five working days after the auction day.
(d) The Auctioneer may at his own discretion agree credit terms with a buyer and extend the time limits for collection in special cases but otherwise payment shall be deemed to have been made only after the Auctioneer has received cash or a sterling banker's draft or the buyer's cheque has been cleared.
5. (a) If the buyer fails to pay for or take away any lot or lots pursuant to clause 4 or breaches any other condition of that clause the Auctioneer as agent for the seller shall be entitled after consultation with the seller to exercise one or other of the following rights:
(i) Rescind the sale of that or any other lots sold to the buyer who defaults and re-sell the lot or lots whereupon the defaulting buyer shall pay to the Auctioneer any shortfall between the proceeds of that sale after deduction of costs of re-sale and the total sum due. Any surplus shall belong to the seller.
(ii) Proceed for damages for breach of contract.
(b) Without prejudice to the Auctioneer's rights hereunder if any lots or lots are not collected within five days or such longer period as the Auctioneer may have agreed otherwise, the Auctioneer may charge the buyer a storage charge of £1.00 + VAT at the current rate per lot per day.
(c) Ownership of the lot purchased shall not pass to the buyer until he has paid to the Auctioneer the total sum due.
6. (a) The seller shall be entitled to place a reserve on any lot and the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller for any lot on which a reserve has been placed. A seller may not bid on any lot on which a reserve has been placed.
(b) Where any lot fails to sell, the Auctioneer shall notify the seller accordingly. The seller shall make arrangements either to re-offer the lot for sale or to collect the lot and may be asked to pay a commission not exceeding 50% of the selling commission and any special expenses incurred in cataloguing the lot.
(c) If such arrangements are not made within seven days of the notification the Auctioneer is empowered to sell the lot by auction or by private treaty at not less than the reserve price and to receive from the seller the normal selling commission and special expenses.
7. Any representation or statement by the Auctioneer in any catalogue, brochure or advertisement of forthcoming sales as to authorship, attribution, genuineness, origin, date, age, provenance, condition or estimated selling price is a statement of opinion only. Every person interested should exercise and rely on his own judgement as to such matters and neither the Auctioneer nor his servants or agents are responsible for the correctness of such opinions. No warranty whatsoever is given by the Auctioneer or the seller in respect of any lot and any express or implied warranties are hereby excluded.
8. (a) Notwithstanding any other terms of these conditions, if within fourteen days of the sale the Auctioneer has received from the buyer of any lot notice in writing that in his view the lot is a deliberate forgery and within fourteen days after such notification the buyer returns the same to the Auctioneer in the same condition as at the time of the sale and satisfies the Auctioneer that considered in the light of the entry in the catalogue the lot is a deliberate forgery then the sale of the lot will be rescinded and the purchase price of the same refunded. "A deliberate forgery" means a lot made with intention to deceive.
(b) A buyer's claim under this condition shall be limited to any amount paid to the Auctioneer for the lot and for the purpose of this condition the buyer shall be the person to whom the original invoice was made out by the Auctioneer.
9. Lots may be removed during the sale after full settlement in accordance with 4(d) hereof.
10. All goods delivered to the Auctioneer's premises will be deemed to be delivered for sale by auction unless otherwise stated in writing and will be catalogued and sold at the Auctioneer's discretion and accepted by the Auctioneer subject to all these conditions. In the case of miscellaneous books, the Auctioneer reserves the right to extract and dispose of books that, in the opinion of the Auctioneer at his absolute discretion, have no saleable value and, therefore, might detract from the saleability of the rest of the lot and the Auctioneer shall incur no liability to the seller, in respect of the books disposed of. By delivering the goods to the Auctioneer for inclusion in his auction sales each seller acknowledges that he/she accepts and agrees to all the conditions.
11. (a) Unless otherwise instructed in writing all goods on the Auctioneer's premises and in their custody will be held insured against the risks of fire, burglary, water damage and accidental breakage or damage. The value of the goods so covered will be the hammer price, or in the case of unsold lots the lower estimate, or in the case of loss or damage prior to the sale that which the specialised staff of the Auctioneer shall in their absolute discretion estimate to be the auction value of such goods.
(b) The Auctioneer shall not be responsible for damage to or the loss, theft, or destruction of any goods not so insured because of the owner's written instructions.
12. The Auctioneer shall remit the proceeds of the sale to the seller thirty days after the day of the auction provided that the Auctioneer has received the total sum due from the buyer. In all other cases the Auctioneer will remit the proceeds of the sale to the seller within seven days of the receipt by the Auctioneer of the total sum due. The Auctioneer will not be deemed to have received the total sum due until after any cheque delivered by the buyer has been cleared. In the event of the Auctioneer exercising his right to rescind the sale his obligation to the seller hereunder lapses.
13. In the case of the seller withdrawing instructions to the Auctioneer to sell any lot or lots, the Auctioneer may charge a fee of 12.5% of the Auctioneer's middle estimate of the auction price of the lot withdrawn together with Value Added Tax thereon and any expenses incurred in respect of the lot or lots.
14. The Auctioneer's current standard notices and information (i.e. Collation and Amendments) will apply to any contract with the Auctioneer as if incorporated herein.
15. These conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English Law.

Pilot's Log Book

Air Transport Auxiliary Logbooks. A rare group of pilot's flying logbooks kept by Alec John Spiller, which trace the long career of this highly successful A.T.A., service and private pilot from 1936-1980, who flew approximately 100 different aircraft types both military and civil, and post-war flew in the King's Cup and other races

Estimate £2,000-3,000
